

Privacy Statement THIM ALP

With this Statement we explain how we preserve your personal data.

What do we preserve?

We preserve all you give us by subscribing to one of our courses. That is, your name, address, city, telephone number, place of birth, email and sometimes a registration number for a professional organization. A part of these data will be on the certificate what we will give you at the end of the course. When your employer is to pay the invoice, we will also keep his or her name, address and email. Invoices are also kept.

How long do we keep your data?

Without your personal intervention, your data are automatically kept for 10 years. We are obliged to keep your certificates for 30 years. May you wish to look in to your data, change these or want us to remove them, you can mail us at info@thimalp.nl. We will remove or change your data without a given reason.

For what do we use your data?

We use your data to provide you with services and payments concerning professional courses and educational programs or coaching.

When do we Share your data?

We only share your data with other party's when necessary in the case of accreditation and only when you have given us permission to do so.

Newsletter

On regular basis we email a newsletter for which you can subscribe. With every newsletter you have the possibility to unsubscribe and you will automatically not receive it again.